

Finding meaning across Latinx identities and adapting to changing times: Racism, colorism, and invisibility

Friday, February 19, 2021

AGENDA
9:00 – 9:25	Introduction	Angela P. Vargas, PhD LMHANJ Treasurer & Program Chair
	Greetings	A Word from our Co-Sponsors Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield Rutgers University School of Social Work
9:30 – 10:25	Plenary Session	Melissa Rivera Marano, PsyD LMHANJ President
10:30 – 12:00	Workshop 1	Deconstructing the Latinx mosaic: Understanding the wounds on our stories and our collective ways of healing Melany Rivera-Maldonado, PhD & Angellyn Santos, PhD
12:00 – 12:45	Lunch	Poster presentations & Vendor displays (see website) Networking session
12:45 – 2:15	Workshop 2	Understanding colorism and addressing implicit biases with Latinx families and communities Milton Fuentes, PsyD & Mamona Butt
2:15	Closing Remarks

Saturday, February 20, 2021

AGENDA
8:30	Introduction	Pre-recorded session
9:00– 10:25	Workshop 3	Social justice at the border: Identifying risk factors, implementing interventions and discussing policy and advocacy to address the trauma of undocumented immigrants Charissa Pizarro, PsyD
10:30 – 11:55	Workshop 4	Enhancing understanding of assessment and treatment with Latinx immigrant families Melissa Rivera Marano, PsyD
12:00 – 12:45	Lunch	Poster presentations & Vendor displays (see website)

12:45 – 2:15	Keynote Session	Disrupting a raceless Latinidad: Addressing race and colorism in clinical practice Hector Y. Adames, PsyD & Nayeli Y. Chavez-Dueñas, PhD
2:15	Closing Remarks	Azara Santiago Rivera, PhD LMHANJ President-Elect

Thank you for attending our Annual Conference!
Look out for future LMHANJ events!